

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

HB 3925 – SB 4032

April 29, 2008

SUMMARY OF AMENDMENTS (017789, 016225): Amendment #016225 deletes all language after the enacting clause. Creates the Senator Tommy Burks Victim Assistance Academy. Requires all administrative expenses incurred by the Academy to be paid by the Academy or the Tennessee Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence. Authorizes annual grant payment of $100,000, subject to authorization in the general appropriations act, from the Criminal Injuries Compensation (CIC) Fund for support of the Academy. Amendment #017789 deletes from the amendatory language of Section 40-38-405 in Section 2 the following language “In the event that the moneys in the fund are inadequate to support the provisions of this section, there is hereby appropriated a sum sufficient to support the expenditure.

FISCAL IMPACT OF ORIGINAL BILL:

Other Fiscal Impact – The recipient of an existing $100,000 grant will be changed from the Victims of Crime State Coordinating Council to the newly created Senator Tommy Burks Victim Assistance Academy.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENTS:

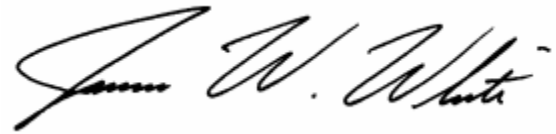

Unchanged from the original fiscal note.

Assumptions applied to amendments:

- This amendment does not create any new expenditures from the CIC Fund. It changes the recipient of an existing annual grant.
- Any cost associated with requiring the Department of Finance and Administration Office of Criminal Justice Programs, rather than the State Treasurer, responsible for reviewing and approving a spending plan submitted by the grantee prior to issuing such grant can be accommodated within existing resources.
